CRYPTOCURRENCY TRADING - NEWS

The increase in the price of Bitcoin has encouraged trading and investment in cryptocurrencies by individuals and digital users. This has led banks, financial, e-commerce and internet companies to develop services for their clients.

A virtual asset perspective of cryptocurrencies is presented in this edition of the Newsletter.

JPMorgan Is Eyeing Bitcoin And Crypto Clearinghouse Options Amid Huge Price Rally

Sur Forbes le 15 mars 2021

Bitcoin and cryptocurrency interest among Wall Street banks has exploded in recent months—climbing along with the surging bitcoin price. However, the bitcoin and cryptocurrency market remains relatively immature, with traders having to deposit funds with over-the-counter (OTC) trading desks and exchanges before they can make a trade—adding risk for traders and forcing OTC desks to shoulder the...

As Bitcoin Reaches New All Time Highs Are More Investors Using Cryptocurrency As An Inflation Hedge

Sur FinanzNachrichten.de le 11 mars 2021

The beginning of the pandemic immediately sparked rumors about a new financial crisis hitting the globe with all its might. Indeed, nobody knew how long it would take the world to combat COVID-19. The government started the money creation process, and the US dollar index slid to the lowest level for the first time in the past few years. As the market hates uncertainty, the whole world froze, awaiting election results. Stock market and gold prices dropped again as a natural response to the election season, and everyone expected Bitcoin to follow the same falling trend, but it didn't...
